

Costs and Fees

These fees apply to the year 2004 examination only. The Society will reserve the right to review annually. Please make cheques payable to "Hong Kong Society of Certified Insurance Practitioners Ltd."

Membership Registration

The annual subscription for student membership is HK$100. All students must register as a member before they can sit for the examination.

Examination Entry Fee

If entry is received before the closing date, the following is payable:

Entrance Fee per examination session	HK$300
Fee per subject in the same examination session	HK$500

Late registration up to 2 weeks before the examination may be considered but subject to payment of the normal fee plus HK$300 per subject.

Exemption

A fee of HK$700 is payable for each subject exempted.

Change of session and subject

A fee of HK$200 will be charged for change after entry and changes must be requested before the relevant closing date. Only one fee will be charged for more than one change at any one time.

Refunds

No refund for cancellation after entry.

Absence from examination with medical evidence accepted by the Committee may be allowed to sit for the subject(s) in the next examination session, without paying additional examination fees.

Cancellation of Examination by Force Majeure

Examination will be postponed if typhoon signal no. 8 or black rainstorm signal is hoisted. Students will be notified individually of the new arrangement. No refund will be granted if the student is unable to sit at the newly arranged time.
